Dear Stan:

I am interested in the following gold coins and would appreciate your reply on the following:

$1.00 gold piece 1862 AU to Uncirculated
$1.00 gold piece 1874 AU to Uncirculated

1908 Plain $20.00 gold piece Motto AU to Uncirculated
1908 $20.00 gold piece No Motto AU to Uncirculated

Please advise if you have the above as soon as possible with your lowest prices.

With reference to the coins you just sent to us which I now have in my possession, unfortunately my client is out of town for about 7 days, so I will have to hold the coins in tact until he comes back. I am sure there will be a few items in the package that he will be interested in buying. Please bear with me on this shipment. Also I am in need of some rare and some semi-rare $20.00 gold pieces. I would appreciate hearing from you on this matter as soon as possible.

Have a good year...

Sincerely,

Larry

Dear Mr. Kesselman;

Thank you for sending me the gold coins that we wanted. I am taking all the coins with the exception of the $2.50 gold 1887. I sent the 1887 coin to my client awaiting his reply. As soon as I hear from him which will be in a week I will either return the coin or send you a check for it.

I will wait until then to send you a check for the other gold pieces. If this is not satisfactory with you please advise.

I need a 1873 any mint $20.00 gold coin in ex-fine to uncirculated condition. Please advise what you have in stock and hold for my reply. Your immediate attention to this matter will be greatly appreciated.

Dear Stan:

You may send us a collection of $20.00 gold coins as soon as possible. We have a new client who is interested in assembling a collection. Please send us whatever you have available on approval.

You may send another lot of gold coins, such as the type you have been sending me, in three days as the client will be back from vacation next week.

I was interested in many of the $20.00 gold pieces that were in Donald Brigandi's ad. I am under the impression that many of the coins were yours. This is why I am writing you. If you can send any of them, I would appreciate it.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Stan:

I just received your $20.00 gold pieces, but your prices are practically out of reach. Your friend, Donald Brigandi, is retailing practically the same coins in higher condition at lower prices.

I can use all of the coins, but can only pay the following prices:

1866-S, with a bad rim dent - can pay $215.00.

1877-CC, can pay $85.00.

1879-CC, can pay $170.00.

1880-Plain, can pay $70.00.

1885-CC, can pay $240.00. Brigandi advertises a better piece for $295.00 retail.

1924-S, can pay $180.00.

1859, which is not extra fine condition, can pay $175.00.

1872-CC, can pay $150.00.

I think, if you will study over my prices and check current retail prices, you will see that I am practically paying the retail price.

Please advise as soon as possible what you want to do about the above coins.

I will let you know on the other lot of gold coins which you sent to us in about three days, as my client will be in at that time.

We can also use common dates of $20.00 gold coins. Please advise what you have available and your rock bottom prices, so we will not have to counter offer.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Stan:

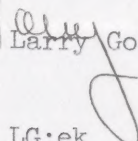

I received the coins that you sent out the other day and I have just checked over your prices. I am returning most of the coins with the exception of the following.

$1.00 gold piece - 1867
$2.50 gold pieces - 1846C - 1875 and 1865
$3.00 gold piece - 1872
$20.00 gold pieces 1866-S and 1925-D
$5.00 gold pieces 1841-C - 1859 - 1883-CC - 1890 Plain and 1908 S
$10.00 gold pieces 1857-S and 1889 Plain

I am returning all the other coins not listed for many reasons, mainly the prices are too far out of range and I know my client will never pay your prices. I expect the client in the store in about 5 to 6 days as he is out of town at the present time. I will advise you when he comes back and let you know his decision on the remaining pieces. Your future prices will have to be better or else I will have to get them from other sources.

I was very successful in dealing with many eastern dealers and their prices were quite fair. I wanted to get your lowest price without counter offering but looking at your listed prices net to me, either I will have to ship them back or get a better price. The ones that I am keeping for the client to look at, we are not too far apart on the price but the returned coins are in another Ball Park.

Sincerely,

Larry Goldberg

Dear Larry:

Thanks for check on last lot. That 1793 $2½ is well worth $2000.

I am enclosing the 1884 $20 gold choice proof on approval to you at $7400. net.

The 1884 went at $7600 in Kosoff's Shuford sale and this piece is nicer without any defects. The coin is rarer than the 1883 as Kosoff says in the catalog. The mintage of 71 is said to be correct, but only 41 were released. This is why the 1884 is rarer than the 1883.

Please do not ask for a lower price as I can not and will not do any better due to my cost.

I would like the coin back soon as possible if you can't sell it. I have several clients for it myself who will be in New York, so I must have your check for $7400. or the coin back in two weeks at the latest.

With the 1870-CC going for $9000. or more this coin is well worth $8000.

Again, please do not write me back asking for any less, as I can not sell for less and would like the coin back as soon as you can return it. I must have it back in two weeks.

After this coin, I will have available some early $5 gold that is on your want list.

Best wishes,

Thank you very much.

I also received your package of the $2.50 gold piece sent to me on January 10th.

Under separate cover I have returned the following coins. On the 1885 I feel that the price is too high on this especially since the Miles coin brought only $420.00 and this piece has numerous abrasions. I would be willing to pay $400.00 for this coin. If this is acceptable, please send the coin back.

I also returned the 1875-S and the 1859-S. The quality was too low on these coins.

I will advise you on the balance of the coins as soon as I hear from my customer.

THE 1808 $2.50 -- WHO STUCK THEIR TEETH IN THE BACK SIDE OF THE COIN? THIS IS THE WORST LOOKING COIN I HAVE EVER SEEN. IT IS COMPLETELY DAMAGED, DUE TO THE TEETH MARKS ON THE BACK SIDE. ANALYSING THE SITUATION, THIS COIN WOULD HAVE TO BE PRICED TO MY BUYER FOR ABOUT $3,000.00, AND WE WOULD HAVE TO MAKE AT LEAST 10% IN DISPOSING OF THIS CRUMMY LOOKING COIN. PLEASE LET ME KNOW AND IF BY CHANCE YOU HAVE IT ON APPROVAL FROM ANOTHER DEALER, SEE HOW MUCH HE WILL LOWER THE PRICE. I THINK YOU WILL AGREE WITH ME THAT IT IS A LITTLE OVERPRICED AND NOT WORTH $3,000.00 WHOLESALE. I FEEL CONFIDENT THAT I CAN DISPOSE OF IT IF MY NET PRICE IS $2,700.00. I WOULD GAMBLE AND BUY IT OUTRIGHT FOR $2,500.00, SO THIS IS THE SITUATION.

LET'S HEAR YOUR VIEWPOINTS.

SINCERELY,

LARRY GOLDBERG

Dear Stan:

Enclosed you will find a check for $2500.00 which will close the account on the $2.50 gold pieces dated 1796 and 1808.

Since I got paid a little early and thought you might want to get paid also .

Received your other coins ok and will let you know about them soon.

Sincerely,

DEAR STAN:

A LOCAL COLLECTOR HAS A GROUP OF TERRITORIAL GOLD COINS THAT HE WISHES TO DISPOSE OF. THESE COINS HAVE BEEN ACCURATELY GRADED, AND PRICED ACCORDING TO MARKET. I BELIEVE HE IS NOW IN A POSITION WHERE HE WANTS TO MOVE THE ENTIRE GROUP, AND IS WILLING TO SELL IT FOR A FAIR PRICE. WHAT WOULD YOU PAY FOR THE GROUP? IF YOU ARE INTERESTED IN IT AT ALL, THAN GIVE ME AN IDEA OF WHAT YOU WILL PAY, AND I WILL TAKE IT FROM THERE.

ALSO, I HAVE A COMPLETE SET OF $3.00 GOLD COINS WITH THE EXCEPTION OF THE 1875. THE 1876 IS A PERFECT PROOF. THE COINS GRADE FROM ABOUT EF TO UNC. THE CATALOG VALUE IS OVER $28,000.00. WOULD YOU BE WILLING TO PAY FOR THE SET IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD OF $20,000.00. IF SO, I WILL GIVE YOU FURTHER DETAILS.

PLEASE ADVISE.
